Kiwi Creative Services, Inc.
Receives BBB 2008 TORCH Award

St. Louis, Mo, October 20, 2008— Kiwi Creative Services, Inc. of St. Louis, has received a 2008 TORCH Award from the Better Business Bureau Serving Eastern Missouri and Southern Illinois in recognition of excellent customer satisfaction and ethical business practices. Customer satisfaction is an important competitive differentiator in today's challenging business environment. The TORCH Award recognizes companies that are committed to high ethical standards and providing outstanding service to their customers, and supporting the mission of the BBB, "to help make the region a better place in which to live, work, and do business by encouraging positive, ethical business practices."

The award was presented to Kiwi Creative Services, Inc. and 7 other area businesses and 3 non-profit organizations at a luncheon held at the Chase Park Plaza on Oct. 16, 2008.

Christina Bross, president of Kiwi Creative Services, Inc. accepted the award from Michelle Cory, BBB President. The company provides home modifications and adaptive equipment for children with special needs, adults with disabilities and seniors striving to maintain their independence at home.

The St. Louis Better Business Bureau serves 50 counties in Eastern Missouri and 49 counties in Southern Illinois and is dedicated to making the region a better place to do business by encouraging positive, ethical business practices.
